

Join Us to Make a Difference for Louisiana's Children

The Partnership unites voices to improve the well-being of children through public policy advocacy, communications, and the promotion of evidence-based programming. We are the only statewide organization connecting child-serving organizations together to advocate for better outcomes for children.

With You As Our Partner, We Can Raise Louisiana's Children

Benefits of Joining the Partnership:

- Advocacy alerts and notices about issues impacting children and families in Louisiana
- Opportunities to develop skills through workshops and training events specifically for member organizations
- Access to the Members-Only section of the Partnership Website with real-time bill tracking during the Louisiana legislative sessions
- Members attend the Annual Meeting free of charge (organizational members get two free registrations; large organizations get ten free registrations).
- Automatically added to the Partnership e-mail list and receive the Children's Corner updates
